

Client: Zukunftswerkstatt Lausitz
Heideweg 2
02953 Bad Muskau
represented by Landkreis Görlitz

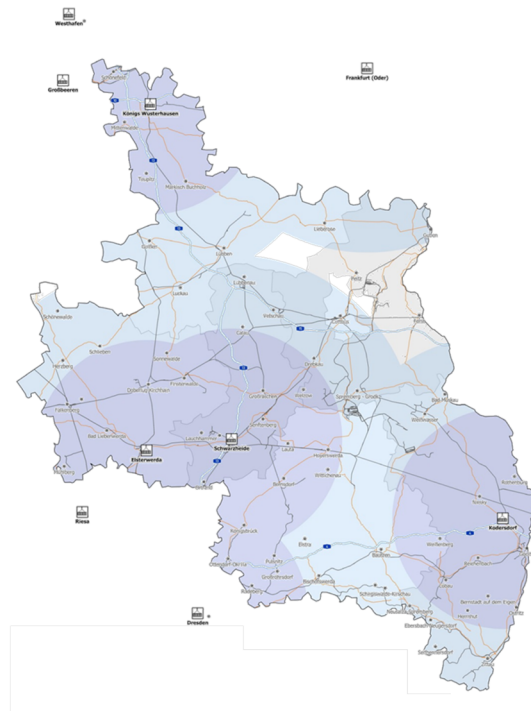

Location: Potsdam, Görlitz, Bad Muskau

Time Frame: 09/2018 – 04/2019

Name of Project: Study on the potential for intermodal freight transportation in the industrial area Lusatia – in the context of regional, national and European freight transport

Main Project Features:

- Analysis of current transport and logistics projects in the area
- Evaluation of field-specific studies
- Identification and prioritisation of measures and infrastructure projects
- Transport and logistics structures of the area Lusatia
- Analysis of freight flows and spatial interdependencies
- Prediction of combined transport potentials in the area Lusatia until 2030
- Analysis of the area Lusatia as superregional logistics hub, especially in the Europe-Asia-Corridor
- Analysis of the logistics industry
- Company survey and identification of combined transport potentials for specific sites
- Business site evaluation of combined transport terminals in container and trailer transport
- Proposition of railport concepts
- Development strategies for terminal locations: Schwarzheide, Elsterwerda, Königs Wusterhausen, Forst, Kodersdorf, industrial park Schwarze Pumpe ISP, further locations
- Recommended follow-up actions
- Presentation of intermediate and final results in steering committee meetings (Districts' administrations and Steering Committee on Combined Transport)

Subjects: combined transport, transport infrastructure, land use planning, development structure